

Ya Think!

Ya Think! was created in answer to the many requests I have had to write down some of the images and visions I have been given over time.

These are insights that I use during my client sessions and often I hear....

"I never thought of it that way".

So, I am offering this collection to you for our mutual Spiritual Growth and Enlightenment. Thank you for letting me be a part of your Journey.

Namaste

...Helen Sladden